

What is the Youth Rights & Safety Hub?

The hub is a collaborative space that provides members with communications resources and media training while we work to change and shape the public narrative. We are a communications resource focused on issues related to youth justice, youth rights, and youth safety in Maryland. We provide support to the youth justice and youth serving community, educate decision makers and the general public about crime-related data, and guide efforts to change the media narrative about young people in our state.

Who is involved in the Hub?

Any organization interested in changing the narrative about youth may join. The Hub is facilitated by Advance Maryland, guided by an Advisory Committee, and structured to support and be responsive to the needs of participating organizations.

What will the Hub offer members?

- ▶ Information sharing, including monthly meetings and newsletters
- ▶ Communications resources
 - By-request assistance to organizations with their individual communications needs
 - Media training and connections to speaking opportunities
- ▶ Data debriefs for Hub members and elected officials
- ▶ Rapid response to harmful narratives and attacks
- ▶ Participation, support, and guidance in long-term narrative change about justice-involved youth in Maryland

Join Us!

The Youth Rights & Safety Hub is for individuals and representatives of organizations at all levels – state, regional, and local – who work with youth and/or youth systems, advocate for policy change, or are otherwise invested in the success of young people in Maryland.

Email alice@advancemaryland.org to get involved.

What is the Youth Rights & Safety Hub?

The hub is a collaborative space that provides members with communications resources and media training while we work to change and shape the public narrative. We are a communications resource focused on issues related to youth justice, youth rights, and youth safety in Maryland. We provide support to the youth justice and youth serving community, educate decision makers and the general public about crime-related data, and guide efforts to change the media narrative about young people in our state.

Who is involved in the Hub?

Any organization interested in changing the narrative about youth may join. The Hub is facilitated by Advance Maryland, guided by an Advisory Committee, and structured to support and be responsive to the needs of participating organizations.

What will the Hub offer members?

- ▶ Information sharing, including monthly meetings and newsletters
- ▶ Communications resources
 - By-request assistance to organizations with their individual communications needs
 - Media training and connections to speaking opportunities
- ▶ Data debriefs for Hub members and elected officials
- ▶ Rapid response to harmful narratives and attacks
- ▶ Participation, support, and guidance in long-term narrative change about justice-involved youth in Maryland

Join Us!

The Youth Rights & Safety Hub is for individuals and representatives of organizations at all levels – state, regional, and local – who work with youth and/or youth systems, advocate for policy change, or are otherwise invested in the success of young people in Maryland.

Email alice@advancemaryland.org to get involved.

Join Us!

The Youth Rights & Safety Hub is for individuals and representatives of organizations at all levels – state, regional, and local – who work with youth and/or youth systems, advocate for policy change, or are otherwise invested in the success of young people in Maryland.

Email alice@advancemaryland.org to get involved.

What is the Youth Rights & Safety Hub?

The hub is a collaborative space that provides members with communications resources and media training while we work to change and shape the public narrative. We are a communications resource focused on issues related to youth justice, youth rights, and youth safety in Maryland. We provide support to the youth justice and youth serving community, educate decision makers and the general public about crime-related data, and guide efforts to change the media narrative about young people in our state.

Who is involved in the Hub?

Any organization interested in changing the narrative about youth may join. The Hub is facilitated by Advance Maryland, guided by an Advisory Committee, and structured to support and be responsive to the needs of participating organizations.

What will the Hub offer members?

- ▶ Information sharing, including monthly meetings and newsletters
- ▶ Communications resources
 - By-request assistance to organizations with their individual communications needs
 - Media training and connections to speaking opportunities
- ▶ Data debriefs for Hub members and elected officials
- ▶ Rapid response to harmful narratives and attacks
- ▶ Participation, support, and guidance in long-term narrative change about justice-involved youth in Maryland